

Transforming White Privilege on the Path to Racial Equity

A Workshop Series

for white-presenting/white identifying women in the East Bay offered on Zoom by Neighbors for Racial Justice

neighborsforracialjustice.org

*Space is very limited. We expect to fill almost immediately.
We will be keeping a waiting list for future courses.*

Let us all do our work to be part of the solution, so that these times may bring lasting change.

In this time of fresh grief and righteous uprisings, we invite you to explore with us our understanding of white privilege, racism, and anti-blackness. We will examine the culture of white supremacy, white fragility, and white space as we learn to interrupt the harmful effects of racism. Engaging with readings, videos, exercises, personal stories and restorative practices, we will build a supportive, healing community while we cultivate the skills needed to show up together as white people to do the work of dismantling racism.

Dates: Thursday afternoons, July 9, 16, 23, 30, and August 6, 12:30-3pm on Zoom.

Cost/Offering: $100 - $300, no one turned away for lack of funds.

A portion of the proceeds will go to the women-led Black Council of Neighbors for Racial Justice, and the remainder will go to other local racial justice organizations from whom we learn in doing this work.

REGISTRATION: Please email a paragraph expressing your interest and motivation for taking this course, or any questions you may have, to alanyasnyder@gmail.com. We ask that you sign up along with a buddy with whom you will be doing some homework between classes. We are also happy to assign you to a buddy.

About the Facilitators:

Jackie Dennis, Alanya Snyder, and Kristie Wyndham are white activists with the group Neighbors for Racial Justice.

- Jackie and Alanya have facilitated transforming white privilege work for the last six years.
- Jackie is an intuitive, reading and teaching in the Bay Area since 1976.
- Alanya has been teaching teens in public schools and independent study programs since 1995.
- Kristie taught elementary school and is now a homeschooling mother of three learning about the natural world and activism.